Comprehension:

Read the following passage carefully and answer the given questions.

Walt was a complete man. To the writers, producers and animators who worked with him, he was a genius who had an uncanny ability to add an extra fillip of imagination to any story or idea. To the millions of people who watched his TV show, he was a warm, kind personality, bringing fun and pleasure into their homes. To the bankers who financed us, I'm sure he seemed like a wild man, hell-bent for bankruptcy. To me, he was my amazing kid brother, full of impractical dreams that he made come true.

Recently, his family and my wife, children and grandchildren went back to our old hometown of Marceline in Missouri for ceremonies at the issuance of the Walt Disney commemorative stamp. As the gleaming Santa Fe train rolled across the green Midwestern prairie, memories of the pleasant years that Walt and I spent there inevitably flooded back.

The apple orchard and weeping willows stand green and beautiful at our old farm, where Walt sketched his first animals. I recall how Walt and I would snuggle together in bed and hear the haunting whistle of a train passing in the night. Our uncle Mike was a train-driver, and he'd blow his whistle – one long and two short – just for us. Walt never lost his love for trains. Years later, an old-fashioned train was one of the first attractions at Disneyland.

As far back as I can remember, Walt was drawing. The first money he ever made was a nickel, five cents, for a sketch of a neighbour's horse. He studied cartooning in Chicago, and then started a little animated-cartoon company in Kansas City that flopped. I was in Los Angeles when Walt, just 21, decided to try his luck in Hollywood. I met him at the station. He was carrying a cheap suitcase that contained all of his belongings.

We borrowed $500 from an uncle, and Walt started a cartoon series called Alice in Cartoonland. It was tough going. Walt did all the animation, and I cranked the old-fashioned camera. The Alice cartoon didn't make much of a splash, so Walt started a new series called Oswald the Rabbit. Oswald did better, but when Walt went to our New York distributor for money he ran into trouble.

"What kind of a deal did you make, kid?" I asked.

"We haven't got a deal," Walt admitted. "The distributor copyrighted Oswald and he's taking over the series himself." Strangely, Walt did not seem downhearted. "We're going to start a new series," he enthused. "It's about a mouse. And this time we'll own the mouse."

The rest is history. Walt's mouse, Mickey, celebrated his 40th birthday last year (1968), and a happy 40th it was. A quarter of a million people saw a Disney movie (that year), 100 million watched a Disney TV show, nearly a billion read a Disney book or magazine and almost ten million visited Disneyland. And Mickey, as Walt used to say, started it all.

Question ID : 63068066291

Comprehension:

Read the following passage carefully and answer the given questions.

Chimpanzee births in the wild are rarely spotted by researchers. The reason is that expectant mothers often take a 'maternity leave' from their family unit, hiding away by themselves until their child is born. On 2 December 2014, researchers Hitonaru Nishie and Michio Nakamura witnessed a birth in the Mahale Mountains in Tanzania. For unknown reasons, this mother had not taken her maternity leave; she delivered in front of about 20 other chimpanzee. As Nishie and Nakamura watched, the infant was "snatched immediately after delivery and consequently cannibalised by an adult male." This sight that led them to argue that cannibalism is the reason a chimpanzee mother often leaves her group before labour begins.

Infants are not the only chimpanzees at risk of being cannibalised. In a Planet Earth segment, David Attenborough notes that a family of chimpanzee in Africa staged a purposeful attack on other chimpanzees who were nearby. When a few of the attackers kill a young chimpanzee from the opposing family, they share and eat the victim's body, taking their meal into the trees. By attacking the other group, the chimpanzees protect their local food supply—and by eating the slaughtered chimpanzee, no meat goes to waste.

Cannibalism in animals is, different from cannibalism in humans. A herbivorous animal like the hippopotamus scavenges the meat of other hippos if food is scarce, and parents of many species eat their young if they are extremely hungry or anxious. Dead or weak offspring are also easy targets for cannibalism. In a 2009 study of Mexican lance-headed rattlesnakes, it is found that 68 per cent of the mothers ate all, or part, of their stillborn children. Most of the time chimpanzees are vegetarian, eating berries, fruits, leaves, and seeds, plus the occasional egg or insect. But being primarily vegetarian doesn't mean chimpanzees never eat meat. They are known to hunt and kill monkeys.

प्रसाद युग के परवर्ती नाटककारों में हरिकृष्ण 'प्रेमी' और लक्ष्मीनारायण मिश्र विशेष रूप से उल्लेखनीय हैं। 'प्रेमी' ने इस अवधि में 'स्वर्णविहान' (1930), 'रक्षाबंधन' (1934), 'पाताल विजय' (1936), 'प्रतिशोध' (1937) आदि नाटक लिखे। इनमें से 'स्वर्णविहान' गीतिनाटक है, शेष गद्य-नाटक। प्रेमी जी ने भारतीय इतिहास के मुस्लिम-काल को अपने नाटकों का आधार बनाया और हिंदू-मुस्लिम-एकता के प्रतिपादन पर उनका विशेष बल रहा। प्रेमी जी के समसामयिक नाटककारों में लक्ष्मीनारायण मिश्र ने इस अवधि में 'अशोक' (1927), 'संन्यासी' (1929), 'मुक्ति का रहस्य' (1932), 'सिंदूर की होली' (1934), 'आधी रात' (1934) आदि नाटकों की रचना की। उनके 'संन्यासी' नाटक के साथ हिंदी-नाटक के विषय और शिल्प दोनों में बदलाव आया। इस नाटक में राष्ट्र और अपनी संस्कृति के गौरव-बोध की प्रेरणा मुख्य रही है- इसमें विदेशी शासकों की धोखाधड़ी, गाँधीजी के असहयोग, रौलट ऐक्ट, पंजाब हत्याकाण्ड आदि से उत्पन्न स्थितियों का चित्रण है। वैसे 'संन्यासी' से 'आधी रात' तक अपने सभी नाटकों में उन्होंने सामाजिक समस्याओं को- विशेषकर नारी-समस्याओं को- आधार बनाया है। अपने नाटकों की विषयवस्तु के लिए उन्होंने इतिहास के पृष्ठों में नहीं, समाज के विस्तृत आंगन में झाँका और समसामयिक समाज में विशेष रूप से नारी की स्थिति और उसकी समस्याओं को अपने दृष्टिकोण से चित्रित किया। स्त्री-शिक्षा के प्रचार, नारी-स्वातंत्र्य-आंदोलन तथा नवीन जीवन-दर्शन के फलस्वरूप आधुनिक नारी का ऐसा रूप सामने आया जिससे हमारा समाज अब तक अपरिचित था। प्रेम और विवाह, प्रणय और दाम्पत्य, काम और नैतिकता विषयक अनेक समस्याएँ समाज के समक्ष सहसा उपस्थित हो गयीं। मिश्र जी ने इन समस्याओं को उठाते समय सामाजिक वैषम्य की पृष्ठभूमि में नारी और पुरुष के सम्बंधों का चित्रण किया। उन्होंने प्रेम-विवाह और शिक्षा-सम्बंधी समस्याओं के समाधान के लिए बुद्धिवादी दृष्टिकोण का आग्रह रखा। प्रसाद के नाटकों में जहाँ स्वच्छंदतावादी प्रवृत्ति का प्राधान्य था वहाँ मिश्र जी के नाटकों में बौद्धिकता का समावेश हुआ।

प्रसाद युग के परवर्ती नाटककारों में हरिकृष्ण 'प्रेमी' और लक्ष्मीनारायण मिश्र विशेष रूप से उल्लेखनीय हैं। 'प्रेमी' ने इस अवधि में 'स्वर्णविहान' (1930), 'रक्षाबंधन' (1934), 'पाताल विजय' (1936), 'प्रतिशोध' (1937) आदि नाटक लिखे। इनमें से 'स्वर्णविहान' गीतिनाटक है, शेष गद्य-नाटक। प्रेमी जी ने भारतीय इतिहास के मुस्लिम-काल को अपने नाटकों का आधार बनाया और हिंदू-मुस्लिम-एकता के प्रतिपादन पर उनका विशेष बल रहा। प्रेमी जी के समसामयिक नाटककारों में लक्ष्मीनारायण मिश्र ने इस अवधि में 'अशोक' (1927), 'संन्यासी' (1929), 'मुक्ति का रहस्य' (1932), 'सिंदूर की होली' (1934), 'आधी रात' (1934) आदि नाटकों की रचना की। उनके 'संन्यासी' नाटक के साथ हिंदी-नाटक के विषय और शिल्प दोनों में बदलाव आया। इस नाटक में राष्ट्र और अपनी संस्कृति के गौरव-बोध की प्रेरणा मुख्य रही है- इसमें विदेशी शासकों की धोखाधड़ी, गाँधीजी के असहयोग, रौलट ऐक्ट, पंजाब हत्याकाण्ड आदि से उत्पन्न स्थितियों का चित्रण है। वैसे 'संन्यासी' से 'आधी रात' तक अपने सभी नाटकों में उन्होंने सामाजिक समस्याओं को- विशेषकर नारी-समस्याओं को - आधार बनाया है। अपने नाटकों की विषयवस्तु के लिए उन्होंने इतिहास के पृष्ठों में नहीं, समाज के विस्तृत आंगन में झाँका और समसामयिक समाज में विशेष रूप से नारी की स्थिति और उसकी समस्याओं को अपने दृष्टिकोण से चित्रित किया। स्त्री-शिक्षा के प्रचार, नारी-स्वातंत्र्य-आंदोलन तथा नवीन जीवन-दर्शन के फलस्वरूप आधुनिक नारी का ऐसा रूप सामने आया जिससे हमारा समाज अब तक अपरिचित था। प्रेम और विवाह, प्रणय और दाम्पत्य, काम और नैतिकता विषयक अनेक समस्याएँ समाज के समक्ष सहसा उपस्थित हो गयीं। मिश्र जी ने इन समस्याओं को उठाते समय सामाजिक वैषम्य की पृष्ठभूमि में नारी और पुरुष के सम्बंधों का चित्रण किया। उन्होंने प्रेम-विवाह और शिक्षा-सम्बंधी समस्याओं के समाधान के लिए बुद्धिवादी दृष्टिकोण का आग्रह रखा। प्रसाद के नाटकों में जहाँ स्वच्छंदतावादी प्रवृत्ति का प्राधान्य था वहाँ मिश्र जी के नाटकों में बौद्धिकता का समावेश हुआ।
