Question Nos. 46–50

Read the passage and answers the questions (46-50), that follow based on your understanding of the passage :

Social work addresses the barriers, inequities and injustices that exist in society. It responds to crises and emergencies as well as to everyday personal and social problems. Social work activities consistent with its holistic approach focus on persons and their environments. Social work interventions range from primarily person-focused psychological process to involvement in social policy, planning and development. These include counseling, clinical social work, group work, social pedagogical work, and family treatment and therapy as well as efforts to help people obtain services and resources in the community. Interventions also include agency administration, community organization and engaging in social and political action to impact social policy and economic development. The holistic focus of social work is universal, but the priorities of social work practice will vary from country to country and from time to time depending on cultural, historical and socio-economic conditions.
