In order for it to be fraud in the legal sense the person on whom the fraud was sought to be committed should have necessarily fallen prey to it. If an attempt of fraud is made but the person concerned was not actually deceived, it is not 'fraud' as understood legally. Bank fraud is a fraud committed on banks mainly by fraudulent representations using false documents. Bank fraud concerns all citizens. It is a very sensitive issue as it affects the public faith on which the whole Banking system is predominantly based. Bank fraud includes all sorts of misappropriations, embezzlements, manipulations of negotiable instruments like cheques, bank drafts, bills or statements of accounts, securities etc. With the boom in the banking business, bank frauds are also on the rise. Bank fraud is covered under the Indian Penal Code. Cheques are a major area where frauds are committed by putting counterfeit signature on the cheque. After the economic liberalization started in 1991 in India's banking system, there has been a lot of expansion and changes have also taken place. Generally, arrangements are also made to monitor banks in every country. And the Reserve Bank does this work in India, but despite this, banks in India have their own challenges. These challenges are related to ethics, financial crisis, and corporate governance in the functioning of banks. The ever-increasing NPA (sinking debt of banks) and the money withdrawn by fraud is troubling the banks. According to RBI annual report 2019-20, the amount involved in banking frauds is Rs 1.85 lakh crore in 2019-20 and the number of frauds is 8,707. But several big bank frauds have put the banking system in India in serious condition. With this, serious questions have also arisen on the credibility of the monitoring and audit system of banks. Finance Minister Arun Jaitley says that if there are scams happening in many branches of the same bank and no voice is raised then it is a matter of concern. It is regrettable that the bank management remained ignorant of this matter or negligent. Those who do business in the country should do their work with ethics otherwise its consequences can be serious. Apart from all this, banks should also take special care of their employees because some employees work closely with the fraudsters.

The world should react with the same urgency to climate change as to the coronavirus ____ (A)____, the Red Cross said Tuesday, warning that global warming poses a greater threat than COVID-19. "Even as the pandemic rages, climate change is not taking a break from wreaking ____ (B)____", the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent societies (IFRC) said in a new report. In the report, on global catastrophes since the 1960s, the Geneva-based organization pointed out that the world had been hit by more than 100 disasters (many of them climate related) since the World Health Organization declared the pandemic in March. More than 50 million people had been affected, it said. "Of course, the COVID-19 is there, it's in front of us, it is affecting our families, our friends, our relatives," IFRC Secretary-General Jagan Chapagain told a virtual press conference. "It's a very, very serious crisis the world is facing currently," he said of the pandemic, which has already ____ (C)____ more than 1.3 million lives. But he warned that the IFRC expects "climate change will have a more significant medium and long term impact on the human life and on Earth." And while it looked increasingly likely that one or several vaccines would soon become ____ (D)____ against COVID-19, Chapagain stressed that "unfortunately there is no vaccine for climate change". When it comes to global warming, he warned, "it will require a much more ____ (E)____ action and investment to really protect the human life on this Earth." The frequency and intensity of extreme weather and climate-related ____ (F)____ had already increased considerably in recent decades", said the IFRC. In 2019 alone, the world was hit by 308 natural disasters (77 percent of them climate or weather-related) killing some 24,400 people. The number of climate and weather-related disasters has been steadily climbing since the 1960s, and has surged by nearly 35 percent since the 1990s, IFRC said. This is a ____ (G)____ development. Weather and climate-related disasters have killed more than 410,000 people over the past decade, most of them in poorer countries, with heatwaves and storms proving the most deadly, the report said. Faced with this threat, which "literally ____ (H)____ our long-term survival", IFRC called on the international community to act with the urgency required.
