Read the paragraphs carefully and answer the following five questions (Q. Nos. 71 to 75) choosing the correct alternatives :

Long-term prisoners are allowed to keep animals pets. The commonest pets were squirrels and mongooses. Dogs are not allowed in jails but cats seem to be encouraged. A little kitten made friends with me once. It belonged to a jail official and when he was transferred, he took it away with him. I missed it.

Once a jail official left behind a bitch. The poor thing became a homeless wanderer and starved. As I was kept in the lock-up outside the jail proper, she used to come to me begging for food. I began to feed her regularly and she gave birth to a litter of pups under a small bridge. Many of these were taken away, but three remained and I fed them. One of these pups fell ill and gave me a great deal of trouble.

There dwelt a miller, hale and bold,
Beside the river Dee,
He wrought and sang from morn to night,
No lark more blithe than he
And this the burden of his song
For ever used to be,
“I envy nobody, no, not I,
And nobody envies me”.
“Thou’rt wrong my friend !” said old king Hal
“Thou’rt wrong as wrong can be :
For, could my heart be light as thine,
I would gladly change with thee.
And tell me now what makes the sing
With voice so loud and free,
While I am sad, though I’m the king,
Beside the river Dee.”
The Miller smiled, and doffed his cap :
“I earn my bread,” quoth he ;
“I love my wife, I love my friends,
I love my children three ;
I owe no penny, I can’t pay,
I thank the river Dee,
That turns the mill that grinds the corn,
To feed my babes and me.”
