Q.16 The question below consist of a set of labelled sentences. Out of four options given, select the most logical order of the sentences which form a paragraph.

The regal period (753–509 BC) and the early republic (509–280 BC) are the most poorly documented periods of Roman history because historical accounts of Rome were not written until much later.

P. Thus historical writing at Rome did not begin until after Rome had completed its conquest of Italy, had emerged as a major power of the ancient world, and was engaged in a titanic struggle with Carthage for control of the western Mediterranean.
Q. During the last 200 years BC, 16 other Romans wrote similarly inclusive narratives.
R. Greek historians did not take serious notice of Rome until the Pyrrhic War (280–275 BC), when Rome was completing its conquest of Italy and was fighting against the Greek city of Tarentum in southern Italy.
S. Rome's first native historian, a senator named Quintus Fabius Pictor, lived and wrote even later, during the Second Punic War (218–201 BC).

All these works are now collectively termed “the Roman annalistic tradition” because many of them attempted to give a year-by-year account of Roman affairs for the republic.
