Read the following poem titled 'Last Lesson of the Afternoon' by D. H. Lawrence and answer the questions given below (Q. No. 131 to 140) :

When will the bell ring, and end this weariness ?

How long have they tugged the leash, and strained apart,

My pack of unruly hounds ! I cannot start Them again on a quarry of knowledge they hate to hunt,

I can haul them and urge them no more.

No longer can I endure the brunt

Of the books that lie out on the desks; a full threescore

Of several insults of blotted pages, and scrawl

Of slovenly work that they have offered me.

I am sick, and what on earth is the good of it all ?

What good to them or me, I cannot see !

So, shall I take

My last dear fuel of life to heap on my soul

And kindle my will to a flame that shall consume

Their dross of indifference; and take the toll of their insults in punishment ? – I will not ! –

I will not waste my soul and my strength for this.

What do I care for all that they do amiss !

What is the point of this teaching of mine, and of this

Learning of theirs ? It all goes down in the same abyss.

What does it matter to me, if they can write

A description of a dog, or if they can't ?

What is the point ? To us both, it is all my aunt !

And yet I'm supposed to care, with all my might.

I do not, and will not; they won't and they don't; and that's all !

I shall keep my strength for myself; they can keep theirs as well.

Why should we beat our heads against the wall

Of each other ? I shall sit and wait for the bell.
