Part - III

Answer both the questions. Answers to the questions in this Part should be written in the Common Answer Book. (2 x 15 marks = 30 marks)

Writing of judgments (Name of Court alone to be indicated. Other details in the cause title and appendix not required)

31. Prepare an order based on the following facts: (Refer Statutory provisions and case laws)

On 20.01.1980, the trial court passed a decree for declaration of title and recovery of possession in O.S.No.100/1979 in favour of the plaintiff. The defendants challenged the decree filing A.S.No.10/1980. The appeal filed by the defendants was allowed and the case was remanded to the trial court. After remand, the trial court again decreed the suit on 04.01.1992. The defendants filed A.S.No.65/1992 challenging the judgment and decree of the trial court. That appeal was dismissed for default on 10.08.2003. During the pendency of A.S.No.65/1992, there was no stay of execution of the decree.

The decree holder filed Execution Petition No.90/2004 on 15.10.2004. The judgment debtors opposed the Execution Petition contending that the same is time barred. According to the judgment debtors, the relevant date with reference to which the period of limitation is to be reckoned is 04.01.1992. The decree holders contended that the relevant date with reference to which the period of limitation is to be reckoned is 10.08.2003, the date of dismissal of the appeal for default.

32. A complaint was filed on the following allegations:

The first accused is running a travel and recruiting agency under the name "M/s.Kevin Enterprises". The head office is at Chennai and branch office is at Thiruvananthapuram. 2nd accused is the employee of the 1st accused in the office at Thiruvananthapuram. On getting information, the complainant approached the accused and he was asked to go over to Chennai to meet the 1st accused. 1st accused was informed of his desire to go on employment to the Middle-East. He promised to arrange a Visa. The complainant was got interviewed at the intervention of the 1st accused by one Sharaff. Thereafter, Rs.75,000/- was demanded informing that he was successful in interview and he will get Visa shortly. As a first instalment, the 1st accused wanted Rs.25,000/- . Since he had no amounts with him and as directed by the 1st accused, he returned to Thiruvananthapuram and paid Rs.25,000/- to the 2nd accused on 10.01.2000 for which a receipt was also given. Then he was frequently contacting the 1st accused at Chennai and he was being given encouraging information. He was also informed subsequently against the earlier assurance that the interview already conducted has been concluded and another Visa could be arranged without interview. The balance amount of Rs.50,000/- demanded by the 1st accused was handed over to him when he came over to Thiruvananthapuram on 20.03.2000. Thereafter, as directed by the 1st accused, the complainant reached Chennai for medical check-up. He underwent medical check-up and stayed there for sometime. Since the attitude of the 1st accused was not found encouraging, he had to return. Finally he realised that he was being cheated. Therefore, on 28.06.2000, he went to Thiruvananthapuram office, where both the accused were present. When the amount was demanded, the attitude of the 1st accused was denial coupled with a statement that his amount is in the Arabian sea.

The complainant examined himself as PW1. Two other witnesses were examined as PWs.2 and 3. Exhibit P1 is the document proved by him. DW1 is the witness examined for the defence. Ext.D1 is the document proved for the defence.

PW1 has spoken to the entire case put forward by him. He said that it was on the basis of the deceit and the fraudulent or dishonest inducement of the first accused that he parted with Rs.75,000/- by two instalments. He also said that he was induced to make the payment on the assurance given by the 1st accused that everything including N.O.C, Visa and job will be provided. The attitude of the 1st accused, including his conduct on the last date when the amount was demanded back, was also spoken to by him.

PW2, a parallel college teacher and a friend of PW1, was examined to prove the payment of Rs.50,000/- to the 1st accused on 20.03.2000 and refusal of the 1st accused to repay the amount on 28.06.2000. PW2 said that on both the occasions, he was present and he saw the payment as well as the refusal of the 1st accused with an observation that the amount is in the Arabian Sea.

PW3, a tea-shop owner, was examined only to prove that on 28.06.2000 when the complainant demanded the amount back, the 1st accused denied having received any amount and finally told him that his amount is in the Arabian Sea. The version of PW3 is that he came with a dual purpose viz., purchase of tea from a wholesale shop and making enquiries with the 1st accused regarding NOC for which arrangements were already made.

The defence was that on behalf of the first accused, an amount of Rs.25,000/- alone was received by the 2nd accused and at the request of the complainant, it was repaid by the 2nd accused.

In the cross examination of PW1, one suggestion made was that the amount was paid to DW1 who in turn paid the same to the complainant. Another suggestion was that the entire amount of Rs.25,000/- paid by the complainant was already spent for expenses in connection with recruitment, interview, etc.

While questioned under S.313 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, even though the first accused at first denied having received Rs.25,000/- through the 2nd accused on 10.01.2000, in answer to a subsequent question, he admitted that the amount was received by the 2nd accused and Ext.P1 is the receipt issued by him for that purpose. When he was asked during questioning whether he has anything more to say, he said that he did not receive any amount from anybody. At the time of questioning under S.313, neither himself nor the 2nd accused said that the amount was repaid through DW1 or otherwise or Ext.D1 receipt was received. Second accused did not even admit receipt of Rs.25,000/-. He denied Ext.P1 receipt also. Finally, in answer to the last question, he said that he did not receive any amount at all.

From the side of the defence, they examined DW1. He said that even the payment of Rs.25,000/- on 10.01.2000 was through him and that it was he who persuaded the 2nd accused to receive the amount inspite of his refusal on the ground that he cannot receive the amount without the direction from the 1st accused. He also said that again at the request of the complainant, he went to the 2nd accused and the 2nd accused at first refused to return the amount in the absence of the 1st accused. His further statement is that when he insisted and agreed to undertake the responsibility the second accused yielded but wanted Ext.P1 to be returned. He also said that the complainant informed that Ext.P1 is missing and therefore on his undertaking the amount was repaid by the 2nd accused to the complainant and the complainant issued Ext.D1 receipt in which he also signed.

Write a judgment based on the above facts.
